

Sign of the week

We are learning to use signs with children when talking. This helps as key words have added emphasis and visual information is easier to remember and understand. We have recently had some staff training and will be introducing words each week in assembly and reinforcing this in class. Your support with this will be much appreciated.

Happy

Christmas