PTFA NEWSLETTER May 2024

Thank you for taking the time to read our newsletter, we hope you've enjoyed the activities that we have provided recently - thank you for your continued support.

An appreciation post for our Chair - Gemma

Gemma spends hours of her time ensuring that all of the lovely activities and events provided by the PTFA run smoothly. From dashing to the shops to buy supplies, replying to emails / messages in her personal time or going into town to complete banking tasks - Gemma is always organised and ahead of the game. We wanted to publicly thank Gemma for taking the lead and for being a fantastic Chair of the PTFA. Gemma works hard in her paid employment and is a married Mum to three little ones, she also volunteers for other community groups - she definitely likes to keep herself busy! Thank you Gemma for all that you do for the PTFA.

FREEZE POP FRIDAY

It has been brilliant to see so many of you each Friday, haven't we been lucky with the weather! In the past couple of weeks, your support has raised a fantastic £104.50

The PTFA gift each child in Year 6 a personalised Leavers Hoodie. This year we have 62 students leaving the school, we hope they enjoy wearing their hoodies, which will be handed out after the Whitsun Half-Term.
